

Student key cards Terms & Conditions

- Student Key Cards are not transferable. They can only be used by the person whose name appears on the card and must not be given to anyone else for travel.
- You MUST have the relative valid student ID with you when travelling with your Student Key Card on any journey you make using it.
- All tickets with student discount MUST be completely used by the expiry date on the Student Key Card, or they will cease to be valid.
- The card holder is responsible for keeping the card in a safe place and ensuring that no one else is using it.

We make regular revenue checks on board our buses. Should it be found that a person who is not entitled to be holding a Student Key Card is using it for travel; we will view this as misuse and a breach of our conditions of carriage. Misuse of Student Key Cards will result in the withdrawal of the key card without refund and/or formal legal action. A penalty fare of a minimum of £10 may also be administered.
